HINGHAM HIGHWAY

In editing the Hingham Highway our purpose is to picture, as accurately as possible, the way of life at Hingham High; to catalogue the activities and events of the school year in such a way as to offer a visualized keepsake of friends and teachers.

One

TO ORVIS K. COLLINS, our Superintendent, the loyal and generous friend who for more than a quarter of a century has led the way; toiling and building, ever widening the path and smoothing the rough places, we affectionately dedicate this Hingham Highway.

Dedication

EDITORIAL STAFF

The Editorial Staff of the Hingham Highway, under the supervision of Miss Dorrity, Faculty Advisor, sponsors the volume, being responsible for the name and plan of the yearbook, the pictorial arrangement and art contributions, as well as for the comments and quotations.

Hing-ham High School ev-er true we've Start-ed on our way
 LONG have we stud - ied for this way of life

class of nine-teen for-ty two Pre-pared to meet the fray
 Tea-chers friends and all our books gave to us our start

Grant to us the cour-age now to car-ry through
 Some there are who've left us made their Sac-ri-fice

We are the fu-ture of De-moc-ra-cy.
 Our prayer, to help them with a val-i-ant heart.

Class Will

by

ELINOR MAY DRISCOLL

May it be known to all by these bequests, that we, the Class of 1942, of the Hingham High School, being of fairly sound mind and body, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this our last will and testament to the undergraduates of said institution, hereby revoking any and all wills made by us.

Viz:

- 1st. To next year's Senior Class we leave our zeal and enthusiasm for work, and our love and appreciation of study (which, being slightly dimmed by four hard years, may have to be reenforced by them). May they "carry on" successfully.
- 2nd. Walter Carnes leaves his pants to Eugene Morris.
- 3rd. Janis Thaxter leaves her remarkable scholastic ability to Avis Hunt.
- 4th. Walter Crowley leaves his title of "School Wolf" to Leonard Bjorklund.
- 5th. Violet Nystrom leaves Foster Jacobs to some worthy member of the Dramatic Club.
- 6th. Alden Weston leaves his motorcycle to George Bibby — to use for his paper route.
- 7th. Patty Harwood leaves her blonde pulchritude and poise to Ruthann Kemp.
- 8th. Sidney Goldman leaves his self-confidence to John Kimball.
- 9th. Lennie Jewett leaves her charming personality to Bette O'Neill.
- 10th. Paul Dunphy leaves his way with the women to Tom Haley.
- 11th. We rely upon Nancy Bravo and Bill Handrahan to fill the places vacated by Terry Hughes and Walter Wigmore.
- 12th. Frank Ayers leaves his winning smile to Nick Sheppard.
- 13th. Patty Balch leaves the boys to Nancy Brooks.
- 14th. For any future dances at Ft. Revere, Shirley Fisher leaves her position at the head of the Conga line to any exponent of the dance worthy of it.
- 15th. Fred Jewett leaves his suave line to Jack Phillips.
- 16th. Joan Duprey leaves her jewelry to Bette, Virginia and Nancy. (They've worn it before anyway).
- 17th. Fred Deering leaves all his "energy" to Warren Smith.
- 18th. Kay Lambie leaves her cute dimples to Virginia Rice.
- 19th. Wilma Smyth leaves her sense of dress to Jean Nye.
- 20th. Russ Tufts leaves his jalopy to Squash Haley, who will "keep it flying" for him.
- 21st. Janet Tinkham leaves her beautiful hair to Jane Downing.
- 22nd. Virginia Threlfall leaves her brilliant poetry to grace the archives of H. H. S.
- 23rd. Connie Higgins leaves her flaming tresses to Arlene Kelly.
- 24th. Bob Handrahan leaves his executive abilities to Dick Crowley.
- 25th. Milton Ingram, Robert O'Brien, Forrest Hill and James Reid leave to all male undergraduates the inspiration to serve their country in its time of need by joining the armed forces.

In witness whereof we have hereto subscribed our names and affixed our seals this eleventh day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-two.

HOME ROOM MANAGERS

Parting regretfully with your last ten cents and glaring balefully at the back of the home-room manager as he conscientiously checks you off in his orange notebook, you sometimes overlook the good work these boys and girls are doing, both in collecting dues under the capable direction of Miss Burditt, and in taking charge of the home-room when necessary. Oh yes, and don't ever forget the assistants who take over in their absence.

MARSHALS AND POLICE PATROL

The Minority's Definition: Wardens who continually make trouble for the students.

The Majority's Definition: Good students who do a grand job keeping law and order.

The Marshals are on duty all day, posted over the building to direct traffic, keep order, and help any students in distress. They also make up the Auxiliary Police Squad. During air raid drills, stationed at their posts, they direct the students to shelters. When all have reached safety, the Marshals check each room to be sure that none has been left behind. This being done, they go to the shelters to keep order and to calm panic.

With Mr. Scott as faculty advisor, this organization does a wonderful job, both in maintaining order and in directing drills.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Once again the Junior Red Cross has been called upon to help provide sweaters for war refugees. The girls responded enthusiastically and did a fine job on the large number of sweaters they turned in. Another service has been the collection of cancelled stamps which are used in making artificial limbs for wounded servicemen. The American Red Cross has long been famous for its humanitarian service to all races, nationalities, and creeds and we are proud of the small bit that our junior division of this great organization is doing in the service of humanity.

FOOTBALL

Faced again with the task of building a team from unseasoned material, Coach Bill Cronin turned out another fighting football eleven last season. The records fail to reflect the indomitable spirit of the boys who never quit fighting. For a fine job of piloting and keeping up the spirit in tough spots, we tip our hats to Captain Harry Vafides who is content to let the other boys do most of the talking. There is no need to point out other stars because, rather than having a few outstanding players, our team was a well knit unit of good all around ability. With two victories and a moral victory over Rockland as against five defeats, we find ourselves looking forward to a better season next year.

BASEBALL

Philip Patch

Co-Captain

John Makinen

Co-Captain

Starting with a sensational record, the Hingham High Baseball Squad gives every indication of superior ability. Coach Cronin appears to have a solid machine which can be depended upon. The catchers, pitchers and fielders show promise and, expecting them to repeat past victories, we await with confidence the results of future games.

Standing (l. to r.): Mr. Fieger, Coach; E. Colombi, H. Paulsen, E. Southard, C. Wason, F. Ahern, W. Smith, P. Patch, W. Crowley, T. Reagan, N. Von Iderstein, C. Williams, Mgr. Kneeling (l. to r.): R. Dolan, J. Menice, R. Phillips.

BASKETBALL

Paul Dunphy

Captain

One of Hingham's most popular teams, the basketball quintet, showed great development this season. Although there were only two veterans in the group, with the aid of Captain Dunphy, Coach Fieger developed a peppy team which came through with a large percentage of victories. Willing and game, the boys fought hard with that never-give-up spirit of Hingham High.

TRACK

Walter Crowley

Captain

William Magruder

Manager

As soon as the season opened it was discovered that we had some excellent material for track; quality making up for the lack in quantity, as the group was small. Coach Maynard worked hard to get his team in condition. They have participated in meets of importance and more are yet ahead. Good records have been made, and Hingham High is going strong in the cinder paths.

Standing (l. to r.): M. Haley, A. Hunt, M. Hatch, M. Rogers, H. Van Scoyoc, Captain, H. Brickett, D. Ayers, D. Brooke, J. Nye, Miss Crowley, Coach. Kneeling: D. Lincoln, D. Magnier.

GIRL'S HOCKEY

Harriett Van Scoyoc

Captain

Mary Hatch

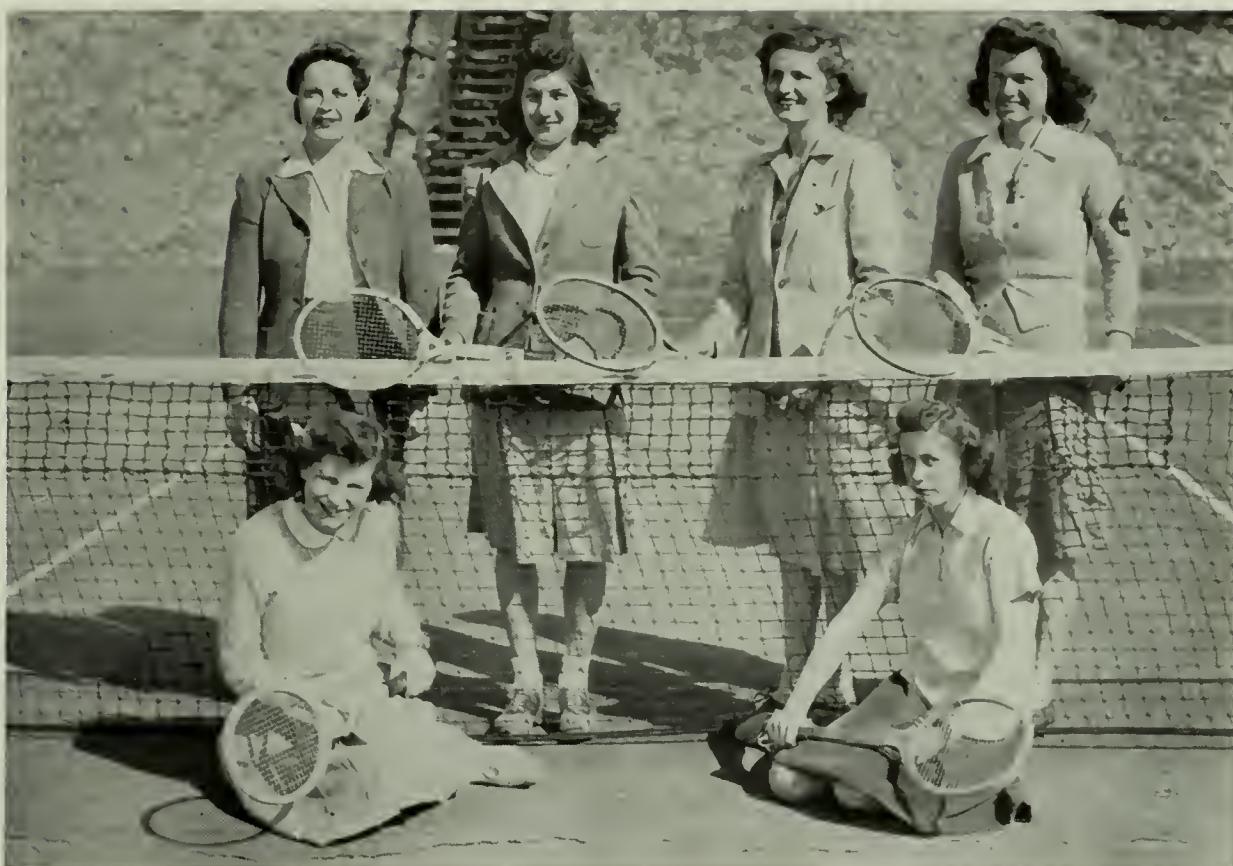

Manager

The Girls' Hockey team opened the season with a bang. There were many prospects out for the team, and it is too bad that they all could not have been chosen. The girls had a very successful season, losing only one game out of ten. They regained the South Shore Championship, which the school had not held for the past two years.

The team was very ably coached by Miss Crowley, with Harriet Van Scoyoc as captain, and Mary Hatch as manager.

BAND

During the past year the Hingham High School Band has given many outstanding performances. We shall long remember the impressiveness of the band's demonstration at the Weymouth football game and at our various assemblies. A great deal of credit goes to Mr. Leach, the director; Phyllis Smith, our head drum majorette; and to all the band members for their fine cooperative work.

ORCHESTRA

The High School Orchestra under the able direction of Mr. Taylor played upon many occasions throughout the school year providing music at the opening and closing of the two dramatic presentations of the school, "The Barretts" and the Three One-Act Plays. They also entertained the students at most of the assemblies in the auditorium, and occasionally favored us with a selection or two as part of the program. They now have a varied and exceedingly well played repertoire, which consists of marches, waltzes, and many of the well-known lighter classics.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club, besides entertaining the school at many of the assemblies this year, has appeared in public and been well received by The Massachusetts Schoolmaster's Club, the Scituate High School, the Parent-Teacher's Association, and at the Massachusetts Drama Festival. As in past years, the Glee Club studied an oratorio. This year "The Holy City" by A. R. Gaul was chosen and parts of it have been presented at school from time to time. "Good music, well presented" might appropriately be adopted as the motto of this organization.

ACTIVE MEMBERS ON THE DRAMATIC CLUB

This year a new organization introduced to our school was welcomed cordially by the students. Under the capable supervision of Mr. Spink, the Hingham High School Dramatic Club has successfully produced the school play "The Barretts", three one-act plays, namely: "The Ugly Duckling," "The Lord's Prayer," "The Trysting Place," and one assembly. The most highly graded of the one-act plays, "The Lord's Prayer," was entered in the Massachusetts Drama Festival at Emerson College on April 11, 1942.

Having achieved such popularity in its first year we feel sure that this club will continue to stage successful performances in the future.

We, too, are prepared for any disaster that war may bring. Here, in our own school, we have four well-organized groups that are able to meet any situation which may arise. These groups, Fire Squad, First Aid Squad, Rescue and Demolition Squad, and Auxiliary Police Force, have all been well trained and have repeatedly demonstrated their ability.

Co-operative Plan

The Colleges of Liberal Arts, Engineering and Business Administration offer day programs for men only, and are conducted on the co-operative plan. After the freshman year, students may alternate their periods of study with periods of work in the employ of business or industrial concerns at ten-week intervals. Under this plan they gain valuable experience and earn a large part of their college expenses.
